Subject: Clarification regarding Payment of pensionary benefits to a retiree against whom personal Court case (Other than Department) is pending in the Competent Court.

Sir,

The department of Pension & PW (vide their I.D.No.17729/03-P&PW (F) dated 10.3.2003) have advised that the term judicial proceedings mentioned in Rule 69 of CC (Pension Rules), 1972 is relating to judicial proceedings initiated against a Govt. servant in his official capacity by the Government authorities. The judicial proceedings initiated against the Government servant by a private person/agency will not come the ambit of this Rule. Hence there is no objection in releasing DCRO and final pension to those Govt. servants against whom judicial proceedings have been initiated by private parties.

The Department of Legal Affairs (vide their U.O.
No.10412/03 dated 18.3.2003) have concurred in the above views of Department of Pension & PW.

Yours faithfully,

R.N. Tripathy

Subject: Release of Pensionary benefits to employees against whom Personal Court Case (other than departmental) is pending in the court.

Sir,

This refers BSNL letters No. 1-15/2019-PAT (BSNL) (Part) dated 30.01.2020, No. 22-22/2017/General/Vol.I dated 5.7.2018 mentioned therein, and earlier references from BSNL on the subject.

2. The matter has been examined in light of the advice rendered by Department of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare vide ID Note No. 4-9/2018-Vig.I (pt) dated 28.09.2018 (copy enclosed).

3. Department of Pension & Pensioners' Welfare vide the above referred ID Note - on the question whether judicial proceedings initiated against a Government servant by the state police on the basis of a complaint by a private party for any action other than in any official capacity would come under the ambit of Rule 69 of CCS (Pension) Rules 1972 - conveyed the following:

(a) If a Government servant is convicted during the period of service, action is taken under Rule 19 of the CCS (CCA) Rules and a penalty under Rule 11 of the CCS (CCA) Rules is imposed. Such action under said Rules is taken irrespective of whether the conviction is on account of charges connected with his official capacity or otherwise. Once a Government servant retires, action cannot be taken against him under CCS (CCA) Rules. After retirement, if the Government servant is found guilty of misconduct during service action can be taken under Rule 9(i) of the CCS (Pension) rules and his pension/gratuity can be withhold/ withdrawn.

(b) DoP&PW is of the view that all misconduct under CCS (Conduct) Rules for which the Government servant could be punished under the CCS (CCA) Rules, during the period of service would be covered by the provisions of Rule 9 and Rule 69 of the CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972. Therefore, after retirement, in cases where the judicial proceedings for any act during service (whether in official capacity or otherwise) which could be termed as misconduct under the provisions of CCS (Conduct) Rules are continued after retirement, such judicial proceedings shall come under the purview of Rule 9 and Rule 69 of CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972.

Shri Srivastava retired on superannuation on 31.7.2018.

3. As per Rule 9 (i) of the CCS (Pension) Rules, the President reserves to himself the right of withholding/withdrawing pension or gratuity or both, if, in any departmental or judicial proceedings the pensioner is found guilty of grave misconduct or negligence during the period of service. 5. In this connection, it may be mentioned that if a Government servant is convicted during the period of service, action is taken under Rule 19 of the CCS (CCA) Rules and a penalty under Rule 11 of the CCS (CCA) Rules is imposed. Once a Government servant retires, action cannot be taken against him under CCS(CCA) Rules. After retirement, if the Government servant is found guilty of misconduct during service action can be taken under Rule 9 (i) of the CCS (Pension) Rules, referred to above and his pension/gratuity can be withheld/withdrawn.

6. This Department is of the view that all acts of misconduct under CCS (Conduct) Rules for which the Government servant could be punished under the CCS (CCA) Rules, during the period of service would be covered by the provisions of Rule 9 and 69 of the CCS (Pension) Rules. Therefore, after retirement, in cases where the judicial proceedings for any act during service (whether in official capacity or otherwise) which could be termed as misconduct under the provisions of CCS (Conduct) rules are continued after retirement, such judicial proceedings shall come under the purview of Rule 9 and 69 of the CCS (Pension) Rules.
