Sub: Request for Keep in abeyance the orders regarding relieving of the Executives from the Borrowing Circle(s) in Junior Accounts Officer (JAO) Grade (working on Temporary transfer basis under Rule-9 of transfer Policy) in the interest of the Company and on BSNL Service Ground, on prevailing Spouse joining and on Medical Grounds of Self, Spouse & Parents as per BSNL Executive's Transfer Policy.

Ref: BSNL CO-PERS/14/11/2021-PERS.LEGAL dated 04.04.2022

Respected Sir,

We would like to draw your kind attention on the subject matter wherein 66 Junior Accounts Officers have been repatriated & relieved off from the borrowing Circle(s) to their Parent Circle(s) by Corporate Office on completion of 3 years of service in the borrowing circles.

In this regard we would like to submit that on many of the following Criteria, the letter under reference may kindly be either cancelled or keep in abeyance for one more year.

- 1. Almost all of the Borrowing Circles are marked as staff shortage Circles, gravely in demand of Officers from Accounts Grade for turnaround performance of the Circles.
- 2. Audit and Accounts closure for the Financial Year 2021-22 is in full swing in BSNL and almost all these Executives in Accounts wing are heavily engaged with the activities. Any kind of their transfer from the present portfolio would affect the timely Closure of Annual Accounts.
- 3. Presence of a great percentage of these Officers are frantically demanded by their Home Town due to Individual Medical Grounds, Medical Grounds of their Spouse or old aged Parents and small Children.
- 4. All the Young Talented Officers are desperately engaging to build up their future to begin with and empathetic consideration for the same may kindly be extended to the performing officers in the lofty interest of BSNL.

In view of the above facts, we would request your good-self to kindly consider this case on Sympathetic and Humanitarian grounds and cause to issue necessary instructions to the officers concerned so that the order for reliving off the officials and repatriate these JAOs, under reference, may be cancelled or keep in abeyance for at-least one more year.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely

(Shaji V.)
