This office has been in receipt of representations from various associations regarding question bank support for the on-line examination under Executive Promotion Policy.

In this regard I have been directed to convey that:

The associations may put in their efforts in generating extensive model question bank with answers for each of the subjects under the mandatory training. These sets of model question banks would be incorporated in the question bank of the on-line exams, after due verification from the concerned Subject Matter Experts (SMEs), in subsequent exams.
